

MOBILITY AND TRANSPORTATION GUIDE

The following resources may be helpful leads in your search for mobility assistance:

The Florida Alliance for Assistive Services and Technology, Inc.

(FAAST) New Horizon Fund Loans serve Floridians with disabilities by providing free access to information, referral services, educational programs, and assistive technology (AT) device loans as well as funding opportunities for AT. Assistance provided to all ages and all disabilities.

www.faaast.org/

1 (888) 788-9216

Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (VR)

works with individuals with physical and mental disabilities to help them prepare for, gain, and retain employment. The VR also provides help with access to assistive technology and modifications to vehicles. For assistance one must qualify for VR services and a substantial impediment to employment. www.rehabworks.org
1 (800) 451-4327

Abilities Foundation (AF)

AF raises, invests, and distributes funds to benefit Floridians with disabilities. They strive to help individuals with disabilities gain employment and live independently. technologies and devices.

www.abilitiesfoundation.com

(727) 538- 7370

Agency for Persons with Disabilities (APD), State of Florida

The APD partners with local communities and private interests to assist individuals with developmental disabilities and their families.

www.apdcares.org

1(866) APD-CARES (273-2273)

Florida Department of Veteran Affairs (VA)

The Florida VA helps veterans and their families receive the state and federal benefits they qualify for. This may include assistance with the purchase of a handicap van and adaptive technologies. www.floridavets.org
(727) 518-3202

Agency for Health Care Administration

Non-emergency transportation services to Medicaid recipients not enrolled in a managed health care plan in Florida are available through LogistiCare and MTM. Services specific to region can be found by clicking here.

Florida Commission for the Transportation Disadvantaged works to ensure the availability of efficient, cost-effective, and quality transportation services for transportation disadvantaged persons.

www.dot.state.fl.us/ctd

1 (800) 983-2435

Alternative Contacts:

Disability Rights Florida can provide information and referral to transportation resources <http://www.disabilityrightsflorida.org/>
1(800) 342-0823

MobilityWorks offers a wide selection of quality new and used vans and scooter lifts, for sale, designed to accommodate your individual needs. Mobility consultants will help to explain the different types of van conversions and wheelchair or scooter lift models available. www.mobilityworks.com
1 (877) 275-4907

Vantage Mobility International has a competition to win a wheelchair accessible van: www.vantagemobility.com/operation-independence
(855) VMI-VANS (864-8267)

Free Charity Cars provides a place where struggling families nationwide apply for a free charity car at the organization's car distribution website www.freecharitycars.org

The National Mobility Equipment Dealers Association (NMEDA) has constructed a list of vehicles and their features to point out what may or may not work for you .

DISABILITY AND HEALTH PROGRAM

University of Florida
Gainesville, FL

Phone: 352-273-5279
E-mail: ctamayo@php.ufl.edu